Eurotech Aluminium Castings ensures that its customers can concentrate on their core activities. Eurotech Aluminium Castings acts as a one-stop shop for its customers. Projects that customers entrust to Eurotech include:

- Product development
- Casting and machining of aluminium sand castings
- Project management, logistics and purchasing
- Assembling complex mechatronic modules and machines

Eurotech Aluminium Castings is the development and production partner for its customers during a product's entire lifecycle.

There are possibilities within the Group for production in low-cost countries so that it may be competitive on a worldwide scale. The specialized network of suppliers and fast connection in its own output make it possible to flexibly anticipate changing market demands.
